These sister tugs were built by COCHRANE SHIPBUILDERS (U.K.) in 1988 and 1990.

They are in fully operational conditions and ready for any test.

Both are capable of supplying fuel, water and supplies to vessels in protected waters as well as offshore. They also have advanced fire fighting capabilities, oil recovery tanks, oil-dispersing booms and automatic towing winches.

They are able to proceed to sea in favorable conditions, if required for towing rescue work.
