Built by the famous Yarrows Shipyard in Glasgow Scotland for the English Royal Family the Southern Cross is a beautiful classic sailboat that dates back to 1962. That year she was awarded the Lloyd's Register "Yacht of the Year" Trophy for the best design & construction, in competition with other 86 yachts. During this time, it has been owned by such outstanding figure as Frank Sinatra, and is currently in Barcelona for luxury event rental. The ship has a 3 decks layout. The main deck includes two dining rooms (for 10 and 14 people), a very large living room, a summer room and the bar area. The upper deck is a large solarium and entertainment area. The lower deck has all the cabins, the kitchen, as well as the engine room. It is decorated with noble woods and with the classic English design and touch that gives it so much character. The Southern Cross has a max capacity for 65 guests ( and up to 80 for an in-port events) which makes her the ideal setting for celebrations of large groups, companies or private functions. She is an exceptionally well maintained and well equipped sailing ship, absolutely ready to be worked and sailed.
